€33

- GLENVEAGH CASTLE & PARK
- ERRIGAL MOUNTAIN
- DUNLEWEY
- DUNFANAGHY

Glenveagh National Park & Castle

is the premier visitor attraction in Donegal. The castle, built in 1869, is set amongst beautifully maintained gardens, and offers magnificent mountain views, raised boglands, and tremendous lakes & woodlands across the 16,000 acres of National Park.

Errigal Mountain, the highest mountain in Donegal, stands at 2,464 feet in a majestic position amongst the bog land, overlooking Dunlewey and the mysterious Poison Glen.

Wild Atlantic Way & Bloody Foreland

The coastal drive along Bloody Foreland to Magheraroarty has many spectacular views, including views of Inishbofin & Tory Island, and is a truly breathtaking journey.

Dunfanaghy is a picturesque seaside village located at the head of Sheephavan Bay. The village is renowned for its lovely holiday atmosphere and the friendly 'buzz' during the summer months.

Donegal highlander tour

€33

- DONEGAL TOWN
- SLIEVE LEAGUE CLIFFS
- GLENCOLMCILLE
- ARDARA

Donegal Town is a historic town, home of the O'Donnell Clan and Donegal Castle, and is situated just on the edge of Donegal Bay. The centre of town, known locally as 'The Diamond', is surrounded by bustling cafes, shops, and bars.

Slieve League Sea Cliffs are said to be the highest and one of the finest marine cliffs in the whole of Europe, and with a six hundred metre drop down into the wild Atlantic waves below they create a breathtaking, spectacular view.

Glencolmcille Folk Village gives a wonderful insight into life in this isolated part of rural Donegal over the past 200 years with its beautiful collection of traditional thatched cottages.

Ardara is a designated Heritage Town, home of the 'Donegal Tweed', and one of Ireland's best known traditional centres of tweed & knitwear production.

Inishowen peninsula tour

€33

- INISHOWEN PENINSULA
- MALIN HEAD
- GRIANÁN OF AILEACH
- MAMORE GAP

The Inishowen Peninsula, the Diamond in Donegal's crown, is home to deep water harbours, ancient sites & ruined castles, traditional thatched cottages and true Irish folklore.

Malin Head is the most northerly point of Ireland. The striking, rugged, scenery of this famous iconic headland was the ideal film set for the latest Star Wars movie filmed in 2016.

Grianán of Aileach (Fortress of the Sun) is one of the finest stone forts in Ireland. On a clear day, the view from the top of the fort is breathtaking, across the surrounding counties and even to the coastline of Scotland.

Mamore Gap is an extremely scenic, twisting road meandering over a hilltop route, offering exceptional panoramic views of both the Atlantic Ocean and the Hills of Urris.
